Petersbourg, April 29.

YEsterday being the Anniversary of her Czarish Majesty's Coronation, the same was celebrated here with the greatest Demonstrations of Joy. In the Morning all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility had the Honour to make their Compliments to her Majesty. Just after divine Service was over, M. Suhm, the Saxon Envoy, had an Audience, and presented the two Ribbons of the Order of the White Eagle to the Czarina, which M. Traidon brought some Days before from Dresden, and her Majesty immediately put them on Prince Peter and Prince Charles, the Duke of Courland's Sons. After that Ceremony was over, her Majesty with the two Princesses dined in the great Hall at a Table placed under a Canopy; the Russian Nobility and Foreign Ministers dined at another Table in the same Hall; at Night there was a Ball, and a fine Firework was played off, and all the Town was illuminated. This Evening the Foreign Ministers are invited to a Ball and Supper at Court, and to Morrow to an Opera. Major General Trautfetter, who was first Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Life Guards, died here the 25th Instant, and is succeeded in that Employment by Prince Peter, the Duke of Courland's eldest Son. Since the 22d Instant, two Couriers are arrived here from Felt Marshal Munich; the last brought Letters dated the 20th Instant, with an Account, that the two first Divisions of the Army had passed the River Nieper over a Bridge of Boats at Perevolotzna with all the Artillery and Ammunition. That Major General Keyserling had been sent some Time before to Oczakow with 4000 Men, 1000 of which were already got to that Place, and the Courier who brought that Advice, met Major General Keyserling with the other 3000 near the River Bog. The Russian Troops can hardly want for any thing this Campaign, since above 13000 Sutlers follow the Army.

Vienna, May 17, N. S. The Great Duke of Tuscany is to assist To-morrow at the last Conference which will be held before his Departure: It is assured that the Affair of Count Seckendorff will be laid before the Councellors at that Conference, by the Emperour, the Commissaries having made their Report to his Imperial Majesty a few Days ago. The Day is not yet fix'd for either his Royal Highness's Departure, or that of Count Konigsegg, tho' it is said they will both set out next Week. The Turks have attacked the Old Town of Czsova; and as it is in a Manner open, they had taken Possession of it; but the Garrison of the New Town have retaken it. The Action is said to have been very warm, and that both Parties have lost a great Number of Men. The Imperialists have had a Major General killed, who is not named yet; a Colonel, and a Lieutenant-Colonel, besides several other Officers: But as the News came but last Night, all the Particulars of it are not yet known.

Dresden, May 25, N. S. On the 23d Instant M. Villiers, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, arrived here. His Polish Majesty's Departure for Fraustadt is fixed for the 27th Instant. Five Days will be employed in travelling backwards and forwards, and about three there. The sole Business his Majesty has to do there, is the Signing about 180 Universalia, by virtue of which the Dietines are to assemble, in order to elect and instruct their Nuncios for the General Diet. M. Palucci, the Pope's Nuncio, has had his Audience of Leave, and will forthwith depart for the Court of Vienna. The King of Poland's Auxiliaries are still here, and in their Winter Quarters.

Whitehall, May 23.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Hervey, Esq; the Office of Superintendant of all his Majesty's Gardens, belonging to all and every his Royal Palaces and Houses, within that Part of Great Britain called England.

Whitehall, May 20, 1738.

It having been represented to His Majesty, That a most notorious and wicked Practice has of late Years prevailed, and does now particularly prevail, to a very high Degree, in His Majesty's Forest, called New Forest, in the County of Southampton, for Persons unknown, not only to cut down Trees, and Part of Trees, fit for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, but likewise to steal and take away from the said Forest, Timber, after it has been squared into proper Lengths for that Service; and it being apprehended, that the Persons guilty of the said Theft are chiefly encouraged thereto by Persons in the Neighbourhood, who receive the same from them: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement thereto, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover any Person or Persons, that have stolen, or may hereafter steal, any Timber from the said Forest, as aforesaid, or that have received, or may hereafter receive, any such Timber, knowing the same to be stolen, so that the said Offender or Offenders may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward to be paid by the Surveyor General of his Majesty's Woods for the Time being, on the Conviction of any of the said Offenders. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

General Post-Office, Feb. 22, 1737.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Bristol Mail to London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, Yesterday about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, at the End of Sunning Lane, two Miles on this Side of Reading. The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon. The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-siz'd Man, had on a great Riding Coat, with a whitish Velvet or Plush Cape; he carried off the Horse and Mail, which Mail contained the following Bags.
